The Next Speaker in the Distinguished Lectureship in Real Property Series

Wednesday, October 5, 2005

Malcolm Grant
President and Provost
University College, London

Dr. Malcolm Grant is a prominent international law and policy scholar who is now the President and Provost of University College, London. He has provided land policy and environmental guidance to the European Commission and UNESCO, and the governments of Singapore and Malaysia. He was made an Officer dans l'Ordre de Mérite by the French Government in 2004.

Dr. Grant was awarded the Commander of the British Empire (CBE) in 2003, and received his LL.B. (1970), LL.M. (1973) and LL.D. (1986) from the University of Otago, New Zealand. Prior to his current appointment, Dr. Grant was the Head of the Department and Professor of Land Economy, and Pro-Vice Chancellor at the University of Cambridge, where he is a Fellow of Clare College. He is also a barrister.

Past Gifford Foundation Distinguished Lecturers

2002 James Ely, Vanderbilt University Law School
2003 Pamela Samuelson, Boalt Hall Law School

For more information, please contact Jamee Kunichika at (808) 956-5516 or jameek@hawaii.edu, or visit the William S. Richardson School of Law website at www.hawaii.edu/law.

University of Hawai'i at Mānoa
William S. Richardson School of Law

THE DISTINGUISHED LECTURESHIP IN REAL PROPERTY

featuring

Lance Liebman
William S. Beinecke Professor of Law
Columbia University

Sponsored by
The Gifford Foundation

Tuesday, February 15, 2005
LANCE LIEBMAN
William S. Beinecke
Professor of Law
Columbia University

Professor Lance Liebman is an internationally renowned legal scholar. He currently serves as the Director of the American Law Institute, and has been a Visiting Professor in Vietnam, Japan, Israel, and India.

Professor Liebman earned his B.A. from Yale University in 1962, and M.A. from Cambridge in 1964. After receiving his J.D. from Harvard in 1967, he clerked for Justice Byron White of the United States Supreme Court. He joined the Harvard Law School faculty in 1970, and was promoted to professor in 1976. From 1981 to 1984, Professor Liebman served as the Associate Dean of Harvard Law School. He was the Dean and Lucy G. Moses Professor of Law at Columbia Law School from 1991 to 1996, and is presently the William S. Beinecke Professor of Law at Columbia.

William S. Richardson School of Law
Moot Court Room
4 p.m.

Formal Program

Welcoming Remarks
Dean Aviam Soifer

Lecture
LANCE LIEBMAN
“What is Property? Applying Concepts from Property Law to the Latest Policy Dilemmas”

Reception Immediately Following

The Gifford Foundation is a charitable organization established by Jack Gifford, the Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Maxim Integrated Products, Inc., in Sunnyvale, California. Gifford was named CEO of the Year in 2001 by Electronic’s Business Magazine. His company is a leading international supplier of quality analog and mixed-signal products for applications that require world signal processing.

The William S. Richardson School of Law’s Distinguished Lectureship in Real Property was established in 2002 by the Gifford Foundation to honor David L. Callies, the Benjamin A. Kudo Professor of Law, and Jerry M. Hiatt (77), prominent Big Island attorney, for their superior work in the field of real property.