The Gifford Foundation is a charitable organization established by Jack Gifford, the Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Maxim Integrated Products, Inc., in Sunnyvale, California. Electronic Business Magazine named Gifford CEO of the Year in 2001. His company is a leading international supplier of quality analog and mixed-signal products for applications that require world signal processing.

The William S. Richardson School of Law's Distinguished Lectureship in Real Property was established in 2002 by the Gifford Foundation to honor David L. Callies, the Benjamin A. Kudo Professor of Law, and Jerry M. Hiatt ('77), prominent Big Island Attorney, for their superior work in the field of real property.
