2011 Betty Jacob Peace Fund Award

Full-time graduate and undergraduate students in any area of study at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa may apply.

Award of up to $3,000

This fund is awarded to support and encourage promising students attending the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa who have an interest in peace and conflict resolution, democracy, and international understanding. The award may be used for travel, research, furthering education, or a project.

Eligibility:

• Full-time graduate or undergraduate student in any area of study at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa

• Minimum of a 2.5 GPA

• Financial need (not necessarily determined by federal guidelines)

Application Deadline
Tuesday, February 15, 2011

Applications are available online at: www.peaceinstitute.hawaii.edu or at The Matsunaga Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution Office
Saunders Hall, Room 523

For more information call 956-6459, or email: smoke@hawaii.edu.