International Human Rights Clinic Symposium: How to use the UN Universal Periodic Review Procedure of the Human Rights Council

William S. Richardson School of Law
Room 254
April 21, 2014 at 11:45 – 1:00pm
Moderated by Prof. Tae-Ung Baik

Featuring presentations by:
- Prof. Tae-Ung Baik, WSRSL, A Brief Introduction to the UN Human Rights Council and its Mechanism
- Joshua Cooper, Hawaii Institute for Human Rights, How to Use the UN UPR Procedure

And students:
- Christiaan Mitchell, Class of 2014, Juvenile Life Without Parole in Hawaii and the Convention on the Rights of the Child
- Brittney Lau, Class of 2014, Human Trafficking in Hawaii
- John Reiss, Class of 2015, North Korean Human Rights and the Withholding of Food Aid

Light lunch and other refreshments will be provided.
Contact: tubaik@hawaii.edu with questions.