DIVIDING THE WATERS OF HAWAI‘I

CONSTITUTION AND MAKING PEACE

Presented by D. Kapua‘ala Sproat
Assistant Professor of Law

SEPTEMBER 19, 2013 • 3:30 – 5:30PM
Refreshments from 3:30 – 4 PM

In partnership with the William S. Richardson School of Law, the Matsunaga Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution will acknowledge Peace Day and Constitution Day with a provocative and current discussion about water rights and legislation in Hawai‘i. The talk will feature water rights advocate D. Kapua‘ala Sproat with a panel of community experts to add their perspectives on this complex issue.
