Master of Laws (LLM) Program Application

Thank you for your interest in the Master of Laws (LLM) Program of the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa. If you have any questions about the application forms or procedures, please do not hesitate to get in touch with us at: lawllm@hawaii.edu.

Eligibility
Applicants must hold a law degree (or its equivalent) from a recognized university or law school or be admitted to the practice of law.

Deadline
We consider applications on a rolling basis, from October 1 to June 1. We notify applicants once the admissions committee has made a decision. Applications received after June 1 will be considered if space is available.

LLM Application Instructions
A complete application includes the following:
- Completed Application Form
- Personal Statement
- Two Letters of Recommendation
- Transcripts and Degree Verification
- TOEFL Report
- Application Fee $60

1. Completed Application Form

2. Personal Statement
   Please write your Personal Statement on separate pages. Write about your experience and qualifications, your reasons for seeking an LLM degree and the course of study you wish to pursue. It must be written by you alone and should not exceed 800 words (about two typed pages).

3. Letters of Recommendation
   You must provide two letters of recommendation. We prefer that one of the letters be from your former or current law professor, but anyone who is familiar with your work is fine. If a recommendation letter is not written in English, then an English translation must accompany the original recommendation letter. (See Letters of Recommendation form for specific instructions.)

4. Transcripts
   Request official transcripts from all institutions (graduate and undergraduate) where you have studied, to be sent directly to the LLM Program, William S. Richardson School of Law. If the transcripts are not in English, a certified English translation must be submitted with each transcript.

LSAC Credential Assembly Service for TOEFL and Transcripts (OPTIONAL)
You may choose to use the Law School Admission Council’s (LSAC) Credential Assembly Service (website: www.LSAC.org), which is a convenient way to send your TOEFL scores and Transcripts to multiple law schools electronically. You must first register at www.llm.lsac.org and pay the registration fee and submit your transcripts and TOEFL scores to them. LSAC will distribute your information to the law schools that you choose, if they are part of the network. LSAC is not required, however, if you choose to use this service, please write your LSAC account number at the top of your LLM Program Application form.
5. English Proficiency Test
   Your application must include a Duolingo Test or a Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or an International English Language Testing System (IELTS) examination score report unless you earned a bachelor’s or graduate degree from an institution in the U.S., Canada (excluding Quebec), the United Kingdom, Australia, or New Zealand.*

   The minimum Duolingo score is 115. The minimum TOEFL score is 92 on the Internet-Based Exam (IBT), 580 on the paper-based exam and 237 on the computer-based exam. On the IELTS exam, the minimum overall score should be a 6. We are flexible on English proficiency scores in certain cases. Test scores more than three years old at the time of application cannot be considered; applicants must retake the test to present a more recent score. Please arrange to have your test scores sent from the testing agency directly to the School of Law. For TOEFL, the School of Law’s institution code is 4867. You may also send us your score reports using the LSAC Credential Assembly Service (See #4 above).

   *Applicants who have completed one-year as full-time students in an English-speaking university at the time of their application may be eligible for an exemption from English proficiency requirement. Exemption is not automatic and will be granted at the discretion of the LLM Admissions Committee.

6. Application Fee
   The application fee is $60. You can pay by credit card by going to this link:
   You may also pay by a U.S. bank check or an international money order, payable to “University of Hawaii”. Your name should be written on the check so it can be properly credited to your application. We are not able to waive or refund this fee.

7. Resume or Curriculum Vitae (Optional)

   Visas/Financial Support (if you are not a U.S. citizen or permanent resident)
   If you are admitted to the LLM Program and need a student visa, you will need to get a passport. The U.S. government will also require that you show proof of financial support for the program of study. We encourage you to fill out and submit the Visa/Financial Support section; however, you may submit this information later, after being admitted to the LLM Program. Please note that actual living expenses in Hawaii will normally be several thousand dollars more than the amount that you are required to show to get the visa. Here is the amount for which you will be required to show proof of financial support:

VISAS / FINANCIAL SUPPORT

In order to obtain an F-1 Student Visa from the U.S. Embassy, you will need to take several documents, including your passport and a Form I-20, which is issued by the University of Hawai‘i. Although not required until an admission decision is made, it would be very helpful if you would provide the information below and include a photocopy of the page in your passport that has your name and picture on it.

Country which has (or will have) issued your passport

Are you a permanent resident of the United States?

- Yes
- No

Alien registration number (if available)

Date you received your permanent U.S. residency

If you currently hold a U.S. visa, list type (F1, J1, etc) and expiration date

If you currently hold a Student F1 Visa, list your SEVIS # and expiration date

If you do not currently hold a U.S. Visa, list visa type you expect to obtain

For Student Visas the U.S. government requires that applicants show proof of adequate funds for the program of study. For the academic year, you must show sources of funding for at least $48,094. (See LL.M. Application Instructions for details.) by the following methods:

- If you are paying your own tuition, you must attach a copy of your bank statement(s) to show adequate funding.
- If you are sponsored by an individual, such as a parent, you must include a letter, signed by that individual, which indicates his/her relationship to you and the amount of financial support to be given. You must also include a copy of the sponsoring individual’s bank statement(s).
- If you are sponsored by an organization, you must include a letter on the sponsor’s letterhead, signed by a representative of the organization, which specifically states the amount of financial support that they will provide.
- If you are partially sponsored and plan to also use your own funds, you must include a copy of your bank statement(s) along with the documents in (b) or (c).

If you bring your family, please add $6,200 for your spouse and $3,000 for each child to the total amount. You should also include a copy of their passports, and indicate their relationship to you (example: wife, son, daughter).

If you will be sponsored during your study at the University of Hawai‘i School of Law, please complete:

Name of Sponsor Representative

Title and Division

Organization

Address

City, Province/State Country, Postal code

Phone

Email
