KA HULI AO
Center for Excellence in Native Hawaiian Law
Presents Maoli Thursday:
ENSURING ACCESS TO JUSTICE

Thursday, April 5, 2012 from 12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
Moot Courtroom  ✩ William S. Richardson School of Law ✩ 2515 Dole Street

Professor Calvin Pang will moderate
a distinguished panel of speakers discussing Hawai‘i’s access to justice issues

Hawai‘i Supreme Court Associate Justice Simeon Acoba
• Joined the Hawai‘i Supreme Court in 2000
• Serves as a Commissioner on the Access to Justice Commission
• Hawai‘i Intermediate Court of Appeals in 1994 - 2000

Professor Linda Krieger
• Director of Ulu Lehua Scholars Program
• Boalt Hall Law Professor 1996-2009
• 13 years as San Francisco Civil Rights Attorney

Stephanie Chen
• Ka Huli Ao Post-Juris Doctor Research & Teaching Fellow
• Co-taught Environmental Law Clinic Fall 2011
• Currently co-teaching Native Hawaiian Rights Clinic

Maoli Thursday is a lunchtime forum and speaker series held every first Thursday of the month.

Please RSVP by Wednesday, April 4, 2012
Via email: nhlawctr@hawaii.edu

Free and open to the public.
Refreshments will be served.

2515 Dole Street | Honolulu, HI 96822 US