Jane Ying, Esq. and Thomas Wang, Esq.

DATE: January 22, 2014
TIME: 12:00 pm
LOCATION Room 254

This event is co-sponsored by the Institute of Asian-Pacific Business Law (IAPBL) and Pacific Asian Legal Studies (PALS) at the William S. Richardson School of Law

Synopsis:
This talk will offer an introduction to doing business in China. It will provide an overview of the business life cycle in China, including the following:

(I) Starting a business -- the type of business entity to choose, regulatory compliance for initial registrations, the lease of premises, etc;
(II) Running a business -- continuing regulatory compliance; and
(III) ending a business -- voluntary liquidation and bankruptcy proceedings.

RSVP By Tuesday, 1/21/2014. Lunch will be provided if RSVP received by this date.
RSVP to: Dana Lum (denokawa@hawaii.edu)

Jane Ying is a partner with Global Law Office, Shanghai, China. Ms. Ying has represented various venture capital and private equity funds in connection with their activities in fund formation, fund investment, and fund exit. Alongside fund formation, she has also helped many international funds to invest in China through various structures across industries, including telecommunications, life science, medical and pharmaceutical, health care, education, consumer, clean-technology, new energy, and semi-conductors. Ms. Ying is also a member of Global’s IPO practice.

Thomas Wang is a partner with Joinway Law Firm, Shanghai, China. Mr. Wang has extensive experience in legal services concerning corporate, capital market and banking and finance. As Chinese legal counsel, Mr. Wang has advised on numerous IPO projects for enterprises in various industries on the Hong Kong, Singapore, and U.S. Stock markets. His practice areas also cover venture capital investment, intellectual property, foreign exchange management, labor, and tax.

Ms. Ying and Mr. Yang are currently Visiting Chinese Counsel at Cades Schutte.