Staff Appreciation
By Dean Avi Soifer

Why eat tacos now?
A tough year is almost done.
Each helps one another.

There once was a hard-working crew,
Who were skillful at minding P and Q.
But when it came to good food,
They were always in the mood.
And that’s why their stature grew and grew.

Staff insights delight;
And work even into the night.
Way beyond the call.

In Mānoa one can find a quite wonderful staff
Made up of fine people who know how to laugh,
When it comes to camaraderie,
There’s no place you’d rather be,
Than with folks who give their all, never half.

Richardson Law School.
Greater than sum of its parts.
Our staff makes it so.
