Daniel Ellsberg

Sat., 11/13/10, 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Hilton Hawaiian Village - Coral Ballroom #3
Admission $5.00 • RSVP by Nov. 1

Moderated by Aviam Soifer, Dean of the UH Richardson School of Law

Daniel Ellsberg worked during the Vietnam War for the Pentagon, the State Department and as a military analyst. At great personal risk, he leaked a copy of the Pentagon’s 7,000-page secret history of the Vietnam War, which came to be known as “The Pentagon Papers,” to the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee and the New York Times. The fallout ushered in the end of the Vietnam War and the Nixon Administration.

His impact resonates today where a constant struggle exists between government’s desire for secrecy and the public’s right to know.

Can exposing government secrets to the world be an act of moral courage?

Agenda (subject to change):

- 9:15 a.m.: Registration
- 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.: Screening of the Oscar-nominated Ellsberg documentary, “The Most Dangerous Man in America”
- 11:45 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.: A conversation with Daniel Ellsberg & Patricia Ellsberg, Q & A.

Daniel Ellsberg

Sat., 11/13/10, 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Hilton Hawaiian Village - Coral Ballroom #3
Admission $5.00 • RSVP by Nov. 1

Moderated by Aviam Soifer, Dean of the UH Richardson School of Law

Daniel Ellsberg worked during the Vietnam War for the Pentagon, the State Department and as a military analyst. At great personal risk, he leaked a copy of the Pentagon’s 7,000-page secret history of the Vietnam War, which came to be known as “The Pentagon Papers,” to the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee and the New York Times. The fallout ushered in the end of the Vietnam War and the Nixon Administration.

His impact resonates today where a constant struggle exists between government’s desire for secrecy and the public’s right to know.

Can exposing government secrets to the world be an act of moral courage?

Agenda (subject to change):

- 9:15 a.m.: Registration
- 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.: Screening of the Oscar-nominated Ellsberg documentary, “The Most Dangerous Man in America”
- 11:45 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.: A conversation with Daniel Ellsberg & Patricia Ellsberg, Q & A.

The Davis Levin First Amendment Conference presents prominent national constitutional thinkers to foster awareness & dialogue about the freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Established as a public education project of the American Civil Liberties Union of Hawai’i Foundation in 1997 with grants from the Robert M. Rees Trust & the law firm of Davis Levin Livingston, the Conference is named for attorneys Mark S. Davis & Stanley E. Levin for their work defending the First Amendment in Hawai’i.

RSVP by 11/1/10. Seats are limited.
24-hour RSVP and event update line:
O’ahu & out-of-state: (808)922-5906
Neighbor Islands toll-free (877)544-5906
In case of last-minute changes to the event, check this line & include the name(s) & email or phone # of your guest(s).

Paid reservations held at door. Make checks payable to ACLU of Hawai’i Foundation, or submit credit card info.

The Hilton Hawaiian Village is ADA-accessible.
Special accommodation requests are needed by 10/15/10. Validated parking fee: $8.00.

YES! I will attend the Davis-Levin First Amendment Conference. $5.00 per person.

__ # of tickets for me/my party X $5 = $_______

__ # of scholarships offered to limited-income youth X $5 = $_______

__ I would like to make a tax-deductible gift to support this and other public education events.: $_______

Name:______________________________
Address:____________________________
City:________ State:______ Zip:________
Telephone/mobile #:________________
Email:______________________________

__check join our (private) ‘ohana email list!

Total enclosed/or to be charged: $_______
Credit card information:
Charge card type (circle one) VISA  MasterCard
Cardholder Name:______________________________
Authorized Signature:______________________________
Card Number: __ __ __ __-__ __ __ __ Expires: ___/___

Return via: Fax (808) 522-5909 • mail: P.O. Box 3410 Hon., HI 96801 • email office@acluhawaii.org