2012 RECENT LAW FACULTY PUBLICATIONS

EAST ASIAN LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT LAW
(Cambridge University Press, 2012) This book analyzes the effects of globalization and discusses the role of international lawyers, business personnel, and human resource directors, providing a broad understanding and insight into the changing labor laws, and shows how these laws and approaches play in the East Asia Region.

Ronald C. Brown,
Professor of Law, former Associate Dean and Director of the University's Center for Chinese Studies. Teaching areas include: Asian Comparative Labor Law, Chinese Law, Employment Discrimination Law, Labor Law, and U.S.-China Comparative Labor Law

TAX INCREMENT FINANCING
(American Bar Association, 2012) — This book surveys the experience of different states with tax increment financing, in connection with urban redevelopment projects, using the states to demonstrate a sampling across different geographic regions among small and large states, urban and rural. (Co-Editor, W. Andrew Gowder, Jr.)

David L. Callies,
Benjamin A. Kado Professor of Law. Teaching Areas include: Land Use, State and Local Government, and Real Property Law

STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT
(American Bar Association, 2012) — This book analyzes and comments on state and local procurement laws, policies, and best practices, ranging from control and oversight of procurement and fiscal appropriations to all aspects of government contract formation and administration.

Danielle M. Conway,
