The Environmental Law Program, ASEAN Law & Integration Center, and UH Center for Philippine Studies Presents

A Conversation with the Honorable Hilario Davide

Wednesday, February 4, 2015
12:30-3:00 pm at WSRSL Classroom 3

Hilario Davide is a former Chief Justice of the Philippine Supreme Court and authored the world-renowned judgment of Minors Oposa v. Factoran (and The Philippine Government), which gave children and future generations the legal personality and standing to based on the concept of inter-generational responsibility. Mr. Davide has also served as Philippine Ambassador to the United Nations and Vice President of the U.N. General Assembly. In this capacity, his efforts led to the adoption of the U.N. Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

For his work, Mr. Davide has received the Ramon Magsaysay Award, a premier prize for public service, often referred to as the Nobel Peace Prize of Asia. He has also received the Elizabeth Haub Award for Environmental Diplomacy.

To allow for an accurate food count, please RSVP at elp@hawaii.edu
Don’t forget your eco-friendly water bottle!