Danielle Conway awarded Michael J. Marks Distinguished Professorship in Business Law at UH Mānoa

HONOLULU - The William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa has announced the selection of Professor Danielle Conway as the inaugural recipient of the newly established Michael J. Marks Distinguished Professorship in Business Law. Professor Conway teaches in the areas of Intellectual Property Law, Licensing Intellectual Property, International Intellectual Property Law, Internet Law & Policy, and Government Contract Law. She is also the Director of the University of Hawai‘i Procurement Institute.

Professor Conway has delegate status at the United Nations Permanent Forum for Indigenous Issues. In addition, she currently serves as a Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve assigned as Assistant Chair and Professor of Law in the Contract and Fiscal Law Department at the Judge Advocate General’s Legal Center and School. She is of counsel at Alston Hunt Floyd & Ing in Honolulu.
Thanks to the generosity of The Michael J. Marks Foundation; The Cades Foundation; Alexander & Baldwin, Inc.; Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom; and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Stoller, the Michael J. Marks Distinguished Professorship in Business Law was established at the William S. Richardson School of Law in 2010. This professorship honors Mr. Marks who died on October 5, 2010 in Cherry Hills Village, Colorado. He moved to Colorado after retiring in 2003 as Vice President and General Counsel of Alexander & Baldwin.

According to A&B, at the time of his retirement Mr. Marks was the longest serving general counsel among Hawai‘i’s publicly traded corporations. He was a prominent lawyer and business man and his 39-year legal career included 28 years with A&B and many years in private practice in Honolulu and New York.

To find out how you can support the William S. Richardson School of Law, please contact Mangmang Brown at (808) 956-6646 or mangmang.brown@uhfoundation.org. You can also make a gift online at https://www.uhf.hawaii.edu/GiveToWSRSL.

PHOTO CAPTION: Danielle Conway, recipient of the Michael J. Marks Distinguished Professorship in Business Law at UH Mānoa

The University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa serves approximately 20,000 students pursuing more than 225 different degrees. Coming from every Hawaiian island, every state in the nation, and more than 100 countries, UH Mānoa students matriculate in an enriching environment for the global exchange of ideas. For more information, visit http://manoa.hawaii.edu.

The University of Hawai‘i Foundation, a nonprofit organization, raises private funds to support the University of Hawai‘i System. Our mission is to unite our donors’ passions with the University of Hawai‘i’s aspirations to benefit the people of Hawai‘i and beyond. We do this by raising private philanthropic support, managing private investments and nurturing donor and alumni relationships. www.uhfoundation.org