NAME CONTEST #181

Our 10th issue! Now is the time for our readers to suggest a new name for this report. What originally started out as a way of communicating "good news" about our community has expanded. Our intention is to keep this a weekly publication during the school year. Depending on time and other resources, it could eventually change in format (more photos, guest writers, longer articles, etc.). Submit as many names as you want by Friday, November 14. We haven't decided how to select the winning name yet but the winner will receive a special prize from the Dean (maybe something from his trip to FSM or Guam)

ADMINISTRATION

LILLIAN NAKAMURA has joined us as the new Library Acquisitions Clerk. LILLIAN was previously at Leeward Community College and before that, at the UH Manoa College of Arts & Sciences.

FACULTY

DAVID CALLIES is in India for an International Bar Association Conference.

RANDALL ROTH’s candidacy for Vice-President/President-elect for the Hawai‘i State Bar Association has received both radio and newspaper publicity. RANDY continues to get regular television news coverage on issues related to the Bishop Estate Investigations.

LEI SEEGER has been appointed Chair of the Association of American Law Schools Committee on Libraries and Technology for 1998-99. One of the issues to be addressed is the publication of law reviews solely in electronic format. PROFESSOR SEEGER recently attended the dedication of the renovated Harvard Law Library, invited as one of the project planners during the past 17 years.

JUDY WEIGHTMAN is one of only 100 women nationwide invited to attend the “Women in the Law Summit” sponsored by the Women in Legal Education Section of the AALS. The meeting will be later this month at Mills College, Oakland, California.

DAVID CALLIES, RANDALL ROTH, JUDY WEIGHTMAN and ERIC YAMAMOTO were all recently recognized in a brochure highlighting

Good News Report

November 7, 1997

“Ninety Fabulous Faculty” as part of the University of Hawai‘i’s 90th anniversary.

FRIENDS

Our illustrious namesake, C.J. WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON, was honored by the West Honolulu Rotary Club last week with the prestigious David Malo Award as a person of Hawaiian Ancestry whose life and accomplishments have perpetuated Hawaiian culture.

HALLOWEEN PARTY RESULTS

Awards-- Sexiest: PROFESSOR JOHN BARKAI (that little black dress with the Rodman hair), Cutest: BRETT RYAN (3L) (he as the fire hydrant, his date as the dog) and Scariest: LEWIS PINAULT (1L) (Frankenstein). Kudos to PROFESSOR VIRGINIA HENCH (on wheels) for the Halloween cake, PROFESSOR ERIC YAMAMOTO for judging the contest and 2L SBA representatives, SYLVIA HIGASHI, JEN YAMASHIRO and KANOE KUNISHIMA and their hard-working committee members for putting on a great evening.

PROGRAMS

Our Pro Bono, Clinic and Externship programs were the subject of an extensive article in the November 3 issue of Pacific Business News. ASSOCIATE DEAN CAROL MON LEE, PROFESSOR JOHN BARKAI, ADJUNCTS BEN CARROLL & LAURIE TOCHIKI and SANDRA WILHIDE (3L) were named.

STUDENTS

SUSAN SERRANO (3L) has just won the nationwide Critical Race Theory student writing competition with her article “Rethinking Race for Strict Scrutiny Purposes: Ytriguez and the Racialization of English Only.” She will receive an expense paid trip to Yale University to attend the National Critical Race Theory Conference in November. Congratulations!
