GOOD NEWS REPORT

NO. 97-9

FACULTY

PROFESSOR RANDALL ROTH spoke to an audience of over 300 at the Honolulu Rotary. His talk on “The ABC’s of the Bishop Estate Controversy - A Law Professor’s Perspective” received a standing ovation.

FACULTY/STUDENTS

PROFESSORS VIRGINIA HENCH and CASEY JARMAN and 50 students were involved in two events: cleaning Palolo stream and visiting Shriners Hospital for the ABA and Environmental Law Society Work-a-Day event on Saturday. AMMIE ROSEMAN ORR, SCOTT SIMON and STEVE COOK were among the organizers.

STUDENTS

SYLVIA HIGASHI (2L) has been named to the board of the Domestic Violence Clearinghouse and Legal Hotline.

VISITORS

PROFESSOR CHONGKO CHOI from Seoul National University will be visiting through next August. He will maintain an office at the Center for Korean Studies but will participate in law faculty activities.
