FACULTY

David Callies has authored a chapter on urban land use control in the soon to be released book "The Japanese City," published by the University Press of Kentucky. The only book on the topic available in English, "The Japanese City" details one country's philosophy of urban space. David also has a chapter entitled "Exactions, Impact Fees and Other Land Development Conditions" in the soon to be released Rohan treatise on zoning.

Jon Van Dyke spoke in Saipan recently at a forum sponsored by the CNMI Council for the Humanities on the topic "Protecting Indigenous Rights Under International and Constitutional Law." His talk also received press coverage there. Jon's newest book Sharing the Resources of the South China Seas will be celebrated at a reception co-hosted by the law school and the East-West Center. The tentative date for the reception for Jon and the co-authors, Mark Valencia and Noel Ludwig, is scheduled for October 14, 1997.

Eric Yamamoto is a major participant in Yale's 1997 Critical Race Theory Conference in November this year. Eric is also on the Organizing Committee. Alumni Professor Mari Matsuda ('80) and Kekai Perry ('96) are also participants.

STUDENTS

The 1997-98 Philip Jessup International Moot Court Team has been selected. The new members are Bridget Palmer and Duane Seabolt who will be joining returning members Lane Boyarski, Isaac Moriwake and Jamesner Dumlao. George Parrott has also been selected to join the team in the 1998-99 school year.

National Moot Court Team members for this year are George Parrott and Betsy Johnson who will be joining returning member Steve Mandelker.

The Environmental Moot Court Team members are Lani Kidani, Elijah Yip and Juliet Johnson.

For inclusion in upcoming reports, contact the Associate Dean's Office.

tel: 956-8636
fax: 956-6402
email: caroll@hawaii.edu
mail: 2515 Dole Street, Honolulu, HI 96822