ADMINISTRATION

DEAN LAWRENCE FOSTER will appear on the cable t.v. show "You and the Law in Hawai'i," broadcast live this Friday, September 12 between 6:30 and 8:00 p.m. on channel 55 (21 in Hawai'i Kai). It will rebroadcast on Sunday, September 20 at 7:00 p.m.

ALUMNI

JIM STONE ('77), EILEEN BROMS and the golf committee put together a full field of golfers at the 11th Annual University of Hawai'i Law Benefit Golf Tournament last Friday at Ala Wai Golf Course. Among the golfers was our own DEAN FOSTER. As usual, everyone walked away with a great prize and had a great time.

FACULTY

HAZEL BEN'S article on the Government Contract Defense will be published in the Seton Hall Law Review.

DAVID CALLIES has an article entitled "Compulsory Takings and the Federal Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act" in the just published Japanese book, The Theory and Practice of Compensatory Damages, edited by TSUYOSHI KOTAKA. PROFESSOR KOTAKA will be a visiting professor here next semester.

ALISON CONNER is scheduled to be a panelist at the 1998 AALS Annual Meeting in San Francisco at a joint program of sections on Graduate Programs for Foreign Lawyers and International Law. The topic is Hong Kong's Transition and will be presented on Friday, January 9 at 3:30. ALISON will conduct a seminar on "Legal Education and Profession in the Republican Period" on November 19, as part of the Fall 1997 Center for Chinese Studies Research Seminars on China. The seminar will be held at Moore Hall 319 between 12:00 and 1:30 p.m.

MARK LEVIN has secured a donation of a Power Macintosh 8100/80cve with 17" multi scan monitor to the law school from APPLEJAPAN, Inc. This Japanese language computer will be located in the law library.

CALVIN PANG's article entitled "Slow-Baked, Flash-Fried, Not to be Devoured: Development of the Partnership Model of Property Division in Hawai'i and Beyond" is scheduled for publication in this fall's edition of the University of Hawai'i Law Review.

DAVID CALLIES, RANDALL ROTH, JUDY WEIGHTMAN and ERIC YAMAMOTO all appear in the "Ninety Fabulous Faculty" flyer, just published by the University of Hawai'i as part of the university's celebration of its 90th year.

STUDENTS

JODY KAULUKUKUI (3L) and STEVEN LI (3L) were married on August 31. KANOA OSTREM (3L) served as best man.

VISITORS

We welcomed several visitors this week. Six professors from Hiroshima University's Faculty of Law have come here to continue their research and study of our judicial system. Professors KATSUNORI KAI, HARUHIKO KATAGI, TOMOKO OKAMOTO, DAIZO EGASHIRA, TAMAO SUZUKI and KOJI KONTANI have been meeting with several members of our faculty and others including Public Defender Richard Pollack, Professor Jim Pietsch, Judge Michael Town, Judge Sabrina McKenna, HSBA President Alan Van Etten, HSBA Executive Director Coralie Matayoshi and attorney Bill Ornellas.

PROFESSOR YOSHIAKI NAKAMURA from Nihon University is also visiting the law school this week. PROFESSOR NAKAMURA was a visitor here in 1989-90 and has returned briefly to do research on state and local taxation.
