In the challenging environment that now prevails, an immediate re-evaluation of business priorities is crucial for many of Hawaii’s small-to-medium-sized businesses. Due to the global economic downturn, Hawaii’s visitor arrivals are down, real estate sales have declined, and public sector revenues are expected to fall. Navigating your way through an economic downturn is never easy. Do you tread water in an attempt to ride out the storm or can you create opportunities out of the downturn?

Program

7:30-8:00  Continental Breakfast

8:00-9:30  Staying Competitive – Moderator - Yuka Nagashima, Executive Director, HTDC
Henry Montgomery, Chairman and CEO, Montgomery Pacific Outsourcing, LLC
Ross Murakami, Founding Partner, KMH LLP
Wayne Hamano, Vice Chair and Chief Commercial Officer, Bank of Hawaii

- Early warning signs that you must take action
- Creating a business navigation dashboard to guide you through the storm
- Focusing your efforts to conserve cash
- Keeping your customers happy, boosting your collections and revenues
- Working effectively with your creditors

Break

9:45-11:30  Understanding Your Options - Moderator – Charles Booth, Professor, William Richardson
School of Law & Director, Institute of Asian-Pacific Business Law
Judge Robert Faris, Bankruptcy Judge, District of Hawai`i
Ted Pettit, Esq., Partner, Case Lombardi & Pettit

- Evaluating your informal and formal legal options
- Prepackaged chapter 11
- Chapter 11
- Chapter 7

11:30-12:00  Open Forum – Q&A with all Panelists - Moderator – Shirley J. Daniel, Director, UH Center for International Business Education and Research, Shidler College of Business

Registration Fee - $25, Payable at the Door

Seating is limited. Reserve your space by calling the PAMI Office at 956-8041 or emailing PAMI@HAWAII.EDU